Re: CFTC Regulation 40.6(a) Certification. Amendments to Rule XX101.A. ("Contract Grade") of the U.S. Treasury Note Futures (6 ½ to 8-Year) and Ultra 10-Year U.S. Treasury Note Futures Contracts Commencing with the March 2026 Contract Month and Beyond.
CBOT Submission No. 25-099

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

The Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, Inc. ("CBOT" or "Exchange") is certifying to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC" or "Commission") amendments to Rule XX101.A. ("Contract Grade") of the U.S. Treasury Note Futures (6 ½ to 8-Year) and Ultra 10-Year U.S. Treasury Note Futures contracts noted in Table 1. below effective on March 10, 2025 and commencing with the March 2026 contract month and beyond. There is no open interest in the impacted contract months as the March 2026 contract month will be made available for trading and clearing on June 18, 2025.

Contract Title	Rulebook Chapter	CME Globex / CME ClearPort Code
U.S. Treasury Note Futures (6 ½ to 8 Year)	19	ZN / 21
Ultra 10-Year U.S. Treasury Note Futures	26	TN / TN

Specifically, commencing with the March 2026 contract month, the Exchange will amend Rule XX101.A. to allow for reopened Treasury securities to be added to Contracts' deliverable grade. By way of background, the Exchange is adopting language similar to what currently exists in CBOT's Medium-Term U.S. Treasury Note Futures (5-Year) contract (CME Globex Code: ZF; CME ClearPort Code: 25; Rulebook Chapter 20). The first available aging bond that potentially could be reopened as a 10-Year Note matures on February 15, 2036, 4-1/2% (CUSIP 912810FT0). Therefore, it could potentially be reopened as a 10-Year Note on approximately February 15, 2026.

Both Contract Grades consist of 10-Year Notes that are auctioned on a quarterly basis. Treasury Notes that are reopened are commonly added to the deliverable grades of the Short and Medium-Term U.S. Treasury Note Futures. For example, the March 2025 contract month for the Short-Term U.S. Treasury Note Futures (2-Year) has an original issue 7-Year Note for $32.0 Bln that was reopened as a 5-Year Note for $55.0 Bln for a cumulative issuance of $87.0 Bln, CUSIP 912828Z78, 1-½% of Jan-27.

Exhibit A provides amendments to Rule XX101.A. of the Contracts in blackline format, effective on March 10, 2025. Exhibit B provides amendments to Rule XX101.A. of the Contracts in blackline format, effective on December 1, 2025, which is the date that the March 2026 contract month becomes the front month of the Contracts (collectively, the "Rule Amendments").

The Exchange reviewed the designated contract market core principles ("Core Principles") as set forth in the Commodity Exchange Act ("Act") and identified that the Rule Amendments may have some bearing on the following Core Principles.

- Contracts Not Readily Subject to Manipulation: The Rule Amendments are designed to ensure that any bonds that are reopened as notes are added to its deliverable grade, thereby helping new issuance get added to its deliverable grade, making it robust and not readily subject to manipulation. The Ultra 10-Year U.S. Treasury Note Futures consists of the three most recently issued 10-Year notes. The U.S. Treasury Note Futures consists of 7-Year and 10-Year notes with remaining terms to maturity ranging from 6-1/2 to 8 years, typically producing a combined total of eleven Treasury notes (six 10-year and five 7-year notes) that are eligible for delivery.
- Availability of General Information: The Exchange shall disseminate a Special Executive Report ("SER") regarding the Rule Amendments. The SER will also be posted on the CME Group website.

Pursuant to Section 5c(c) of the Act and CFTC Regulation 40.6(a), the Exchange hereby certifies that the Rule Amendments comply with the Act, including regulations under the Act. There were no substantive opposing views to the proposal.

The Exchange certifies that this submission has been concurrently posted on the CME Group website at <http://www.cmegroup.com/market-regulation/rule-filings.html>.

Should you have any questions concerning the above, please contact the undersigned at (312) 466-7478 or via e-mail at CMEGSubmissionInquiry@cmegroup.com.

Sincerely,

/s/ Timothy Elliott
Managing Director and Chief Regulatory Counsel
