The Exchange has reviewed the designated contracts market core principles (“Core Principles”) as set forth in the Act and has identified that the Contracts may be impacted by the following Core Principles:

Core Principle 2 – Compliance with Rules

Trading in the Contracts shall be subject to CBOT Rulebook Chapter 4, which includes prohibitions against fraudulent, noncompetitive, unfair, and abusive practices. Additionally, trading in this Contracts shall be subject to the Exchange’s trade practice rules, the majority of which are contained in Chapter 5 of the CBOT Rulebook. Trading activity in this Contracts shall be subject to monitoring and surveillance by CME Group’s Market Regulation Department, which has the authority to exercise its investigatory and enforcement power where potential rule violations are identified.

Core Principle 3 – Contracts Not Readily Subject to Manipulation

The Contracts are not readily subject to manipulation due to the deep liquidity and robustness in the underlying cash and futures market, which provides diverse participation and are based on liquid futures contract months.

Core Principle 4 – Prevention of Market Disruption

Trading in the Contracts shall be subject to CBOT Rulebook Chapter 4, which includes prohibitions on manipulation, price distortion, and disruption to the expiration and assignment process. Trading activity in the Contracts shall be subject to monitoring and surveillance by CME Group’s Market Regulation Department.

Core Principle 5 – Position Limits or Accountability

The Contracts shall be subject to a Position Reporting Level of 200 contracts and to a Single Month and All Month Position Limit according to the table below. The speculative position limits for the Contracts are consistent with the Commission's guidance.

Core Principle 7 – Availability of General Information

The Exchange shall disseminate a Special Executive Report ("SER") that sets forth information in regard to specifications, terms, and conditions of the Contracts. The SER will also be published on the Exchange's website.

Core Principle 8 – Daily Publication of Trading Information

The Exchange shall publish trading volumes, open interest levels, and price information daily of the Contracts on the CME Group website and through quote vendors.

Core Principle 9 – Execution of Transactions

The Contracts will be listed for trading on CME Globex and for clearing via CME ClearPort. The CME Globex electronic trading venue provides for competitive and open execution of transactions. CME Globex affords the benefits of reliability and global connectivity.

Core Principle 10 – Trade Information

All requisite trade information shall be included in the audit trail and will suffice for the Market Regulation Department to monitor for market abuse.

Core Principle 11 – Financial Integrity of Transactions

The Contracts shall be cleared by CME Clearing, which is registered with the Commission as a derivative clearing organization, and which is subject to all CFTC regulations related thereto.

Core Principle 12 – Protection of Markets and Market Participants

Chapters 4 and 5 in the CBOT Rulebook set forth multiple strictures that preclude intermediaries from disadvantaging their customers. These Rules apply to trading in the Exchange's competitive trading venues and will apply to transactions in the Contracts.

Core Principle 13 – Disciplinary Procedures

Chapter 4 of the CBOT Rulebook provides for the Exchange to discipline, suspend, or expel members or market participants who violate the rules of the Exchange. Trading in the Contracts shall be subject to these provisions. The Exchange's Market Regulation Department has the authority to exercise its powers of enforcement, in the event that rule violations in the Contracts are identified.

Core Principle 14 – Dispute Resolution

Disputes in respect of the Contracts shall be subject to the arbitration provisions set forth in Chapter 6 of both the CBOT Rulebook, which allow all nonmembers to submit to arbitration claims for financial loss resulting from transactions on the Exchange. Pursuant to these provisions, any member named as a respondent in any such claim submitted by a nonmember is required to participate in arbitration proceedings. Additionally, the Exchange requires members to resolve via arbitration all disputes concerning transactions on the Exchange.

CBOT Rulebook

Chapter 29E

Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM1</sup> Futures

29E100. SCOPE OF CHAPTER

This chapter is limited in application to futures trading of Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> futures (hereafter also referred to as "Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup>"). The procedures for trading, clearing, delivery and settlement of the contracts and any other matters not specifically covered herein or in Chapter 7 shall be governed by the general rules of the Exchange.

29E101. CONTRACT SPECIFICATIONS

The contract grade shall be the final settlement price (as described in Rule 29E104) of the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> on final settlement day (as described in Rule 29E105).

29E102. TRADING SPECIFICATIONS

The number of months open for trading at any given time shall be determined by the Exchange foregoing.

29E102.A. Trading Schedule

The hours for trading of Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> futures shall be determined by the Exchange. Trading in an expiring contract shall cease at 1:30 p.m. Chicago time (2:30 p.m. Eastern time) on the last day of trading.

The market shall be opened and closed for all months simultaneously.

29E102.B. Trading Unit

The unit of trading shall be $250.00 times the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> price which corresponds to each futures contract.

29E102.C. Price Increments

The price of the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> futures shall be quoted in points. One point equals $250.00. The minimum price fluctuation shall be 0.01 points (1/100) points per contract ($2.50 per contract).

29E102.D. Price Limits

There are no price limits for Bloomberg Commodity Index<sup>SM</sup> futures.

29E102.E. Position Limits, Exemptions, Position Accountability and Reportable Levels

The applicable position limits and/or accountability levels, in addition to the reportable levels, are set forth in the Position Limit, Position Accountability and Reportable Level Table in the Interpretations & Special Notices Section of Chapter 5.

A Person seeking an exemption from position limits for bona fide commercial purposes shall apply to the Market Regulation Department on forms provided by the Exchange, and the Market Regulation Department may grant qualified exemptions in its sole discretion.

Refer to Rule 559 for requirements concerning the aggregation of positions and allowable exemptions from the specified position limits.

29E102.F. Termination of Trading

The last day of trading in Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> futures shall be the third Wednesday of the contract month, or if the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> is not published for that day, the first preceding business day for which the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> was published.

<sup>1</sup> "Bloomberg®", "Bloomberg Commodity Index<sup>SM</sup>" are service marks of Bloomberg Finance L.P. and its affiliates (collectively, "Bloomberg") and have been licensed for use for certain purposes by Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, Inc. Neither Bloomberg nor UBS Securities LLC and its affiliates (collectively, "UBS") are affiliated with Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, Inc., and Bloomberg and UBS do not approve, endorse, review, or recommend Bloomberg Commodity Index<sup>SM</sup> futures. Neither Bloomberg nor UBS guarantees the timeliness, accurateness, or completeness of any data or information relating to Bloomberg Commodity Index<sup>SM</sup>.

After trading in contracts for future delivery in the current delivery month has ceased, outstanding contracts for such delivery shall be liquidated by cash settlement as prescribed in Rule 29E103.

29E103. DELIVERY ON FUTURES CONTRACTS

Delivery against the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> futures contracts must be made through the Clearing House. Delivery under these rules shall be on the final settlement day (as described in Rule 29E105.) and shall be accomplished by cash settlement as hereinafter provided.

Clearing members holding open positions in a Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> futures contract at the time of termination of trading shall make payment to and receive payment through the Clearing House in accordance with normal variation settlement procedures based on a settlement price equal to the final settlement price (as described in Rule 29E104.).

29E104. FINAL SETTLEMENT PRICE

The final settlement price shall be based on a special quotation of the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> which corresponds to the expiring contract as of the close of business on the final settlement day (as described in Rule 29E105.). This special quotation will consist of the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> which corresponds to the expiring contract calculated using the settlement prices of the component futures on final settlement day, except as noted below.

If an exchange that lists a component or components of the commodity index is not open on the final settlement day because of a scheduled closing, then the contribution to the final settlement price for the affected component or components shall be based on the settlement quotation of the first preceding trading day.

"Market Disruption Event" ("MDE") shall mean: (a) the termination or suspension of, or material limitation or disruption in the trading of, any futures contract used in the calculation of the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> on that day, including if due to the closing of an exchange prior to the regularly scheduled closing time of an exchange; (b) the settlement price of any such contract reflects the maximum permitted price change from the previous day's settlement price; or (c) the failure of an exchange to publish official Settlement Prices for any such contract. If an MDE occurs on the expiration date, the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> contract will settle based on a special value calculated using all component futures prices as of the expiration date that were not subject to an MDE and, for any futures contracts which were subject to an MDE, using the next available futures settlement price for which an MDE is no longer in effect, with a delay limited to 10 business days from the original expiration date. If, on the 10th business day, an MDE is still in effect for the affected contracts, then Bloomberg Finance L.P. and the Chicago Board of Trade will agree upon an appropriate estimated futures price or prices to be used to calculate the final adjusted settlement value of the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup>.

29E105. FINAL SETTLEMENT DAY

The final settlement day shall be defined as the third Wednesday of the contract month, or if the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> is not published for that day, the first preceding business day for which the Bloomberg Commodity Agriculture Subindex<sup>SM</sup> was published.

29E106. BASIS TRADE AT INDEX CLOSE ("BTIC") TRANSACTIONS

All BTIC transactions must be executed in accordance with the requirements of Rule 524.B.

29E106.A. BTIC Block Trade Requirements

BTIC block trades must be executed in accordance with the requirements of Rule 526. For a BTIC block trade executed on a given Trading Day on or before the scheduled close of the underlying primary securities market, the corresponding futures price shall be made by reference to the Index closing value for the current Trading Day. For a BTIC block trade executed on a given Trading Day after the scheduled close of the underlying primary securities market, the corresponding futures price shall be made by reference to the Index closing value for the next Trading Day.

29E106.B. BTIC Price Assignment Procedures

The futures price of a BTIC transaction shall be determined by the Exchange at 3:30 p.m. Chicago time (4:30 p.m. Eastern time) (or according to the requirements of Rule 29E104 in the case of final settlement). Such price determination shall be deemed final.

29E106.C. BTIC Minimum Price Increment

The valid basis or price increment applied to the Index closing value to establish the BTIC futures price must be stated in full tick increments of 0.01 index points.

If an exchange that lists a component or components of the commodity index is not open on the final settlement day because of a scheduled closing, then the contribution to the final settlement price for the affected component or components shall be based on the settlement quotation of the first preceding trading day.

"Market Disruption Event" ("MDE") shall mean: (a) the termination or suspension of, or material limitation or disruption in the trading of, any futures contract used in the calculation of the Bloomberg Commodity Livestock Subindex<sup>SM</sup> on that day, including if due to the closing of an exchange prior to the regularly scheduled closing time of an exchange; (b) the settlement price of any such contract reflects the maximum permitted price change from the previous day's settlement price; or (c) the failure of an exchange to publish official Settlement Prices for any such contract. If an MDE occurs on the expiration date, the Bloomberg Commodity Livestock Subindex<sup>SM</sup> contract will settle based on a special value calculated using all component futures prices as of the expiration date that were not subject to an MDE and, for any futures contracts which were subject to an MDE, using the next available futures settlement price for which an MDE is no longer in effect, with a delay limited to 10 business days from the original expiration date. If, on the 10th business day, an MDE is still in effect for the affected contracts, then Bloomberg Finance L.P. and the Chicago Board of Trade will agree upon an appropriate estimated futures price or prices to be used to calculate the final adjusted settlement value of the Bloomberg Commodity Livestock Subindex<sup>SM</sup>.

29G105. FINAL SETTLEMENT DAY

The final settlement day shall be defined as the third Wednesday of the contract month, or if the Bloomberg Commodity Livestock Subindex<sup>SM</sup> is not published for that day, the first preceding business day for which the Bloomberg Commodity Livestock Subindex<sup>SM</sup> was published.

29G106. BASIS TRADE AT INDEX CLOSE ("BTIC") TRANSACTIONS

All BTIC transactions must be executed in accordance with the requirements of Rule 524.B.

29G106.A. BTIC Block Trade Requirements

BTIC block trades must be executed in accordance with the requirements of Rule 526. For a BTIC block trade executed on a given Trading Day on or before the scheduled close of the underlying primary securities market, the corresponding futures price shall be made by reference to the Index closing value for the current Trading Day. For a BTIC block trade executed on a given Trading Day after the scheduled close of the underlying primary securities market, the corresponding futures price shall be made by reference to the Index closing value for the next Trading Day.

29G106.B. BTIC Price Assignment Procedures

The futures price of a BTIC transaction shall be determined by the Exchange at 3:30 p.m. Chicago time (4:30 p.m. Eastern time) (or according to the requirements of Rule 29G104 in the case of final settlement). Such price determination shall be deemed final.

29G106.C. BTIC Minimum Price Increment

The valid basis or price increment applied to the Index closing value to establish the BTIC futures price must be stated in full tick increments of 0.01 index points.

Neither Bloomberg nor UBS guarantees the timeliness, accurateness, or completeness of any data or information relating to Bloomberg Commodity Index<sup>SM</sup>.

Delivery against the Bloomberg Commodity Precious Metals Subindex<sup>SM</sup> futures contracts must be made through the Clearing House. Delivery under these rules shall be on the final settlement day (as described in Rule 29K105.) and shall be accomplished by cash settlement as hereinafter provided.

Clearing members holding open positions in a Bloomberg Commodity Precious Metals Subindex<sup>SM</sup> futures contract at the time of termination of trading shall make payment to and receive payment through the Clearing House in accordance with normal variation settlement procedures based on a settlement price equal to the final settlement price (as described in Rule 29K104.).

29K104. FINAL SETTLEMENT PRICE

The final settlement price shall be based on a special quotation of the Bloomberg Commodity Precious Metals Subindex<sup>SM</sup> which corresponds to the expiring contract as of the close of business on the final settlement day (as described in Rule 29K105.). This special quotation will consist of the Bloomberg Commodity Precious Metals Subindex<sup>SM</sup> which corresponds to the expiring contract calculated using the settlement prices of the component futures on final settlement day, except as noted below.

If an exchange that lists a component or components of the commodity index is not open on the final settlement day because of a scheduled closing, then the contribution to the final settlement price for the affected component or components shall be based on the settlement quotation of the first preceding trading day.

“Market Disruption Event” (“MDE”) shall mean: (a) the termination or suspension of, or material limitation or disruption in the trading of, any futures contract used in the calculation of the Bloomberg Commodity Precious Metals Subindex<sup>SM</sup> on that day, including if due to the closing of an exchange prior to the regularly scheduled closing time of an exchange; (b) the settlement price of any such contract reflects the maximum permitted price change from the previous day’s settlement price; or (c) the failure of an exchange to publish official Settlement Prices for any such contract. If an MDE occurs on the expiration date, the Bloomberg Commodity Precious Metals Subindex<sup>SM</sup> contract will settle based on a special value calculated using all component futures prices as of the expiration date that were not subject to an MDE and, for any futures contracts which were subject to an MDE, using the next available futures settlement price for which an MDE is no longer in effect, with a delay limited to 10 business days from the original expiration date. If, on the 10th business day, an MDE is still in effect for the affected contracts, then Bloomberg Finance L.P. and the Chicago Board of Trade will agree upon an appropriate estimated futures price or prices to be used to calculate the final adjusted settlement value of the Bloomberg Commodity Precious Metals Subindex<sup>SM</sup>.

29K105. FINAL SETTLEMENT DAY

The final settlement day shall be defined as the third Wednesday of the contract month, or if the Bloomberg Commodity Precious Metals Subindex<sup>SM</sup> is not published for that day, the first preceding business day for which the Bloomberg Commodity Precious Metals Subindex<sup>SM</sup> was published.

29K106. BASIS TRADE AT INDEX CLOSE (“BTIC”) TRANSACTIONS

All BTIC transactions must be executed in accordance with the requirements of Rule 524.B.

29K106.A. BTIC Block Trade Requirements

BTIC block trades must be executed in accordance with the requirements of Rule 526. For a BTIC block trade executed on a given Trading Day on or before the scheduled close of the underlying primary securities market, the corresponding futures price shall be made by reference to the Index closing value for the current Trading Day. For a BTIC block trade executed on a given Trading Day after the scheduled close of the underlying primary securities market, the corresponding futures price shall be made by reference to the Index closing value for the next Trading Day.

29K106.B. BTIC Price Assignment Procedures

The futures price of a BTIC transaction shall be determined by the Exchange at 3:30 p.m. Chicago time (4:30 p.m. Eastern time) (or according to the requirements of Rule 29K104 in the case of final settlement). Such price determination shall be deemed final.

29K106.C. BTIC Minimum Price Increment

The valid basis or price increment applied to the Index closing value to establish the BTIC futures price must be stated in full tick increments of 0.01 index points.

Appendix F

Daily Settlement Procedure Document

Normal Daily Settlement Procedure

CME Group staff determine the daily settlement price for the Bloomberg Commodity Subindex Futures, Agriculture Index (BAG), All Metals (BME), Energy Index (BEN), Grains (BGR), Livestock (BLI), Petroleum Index (BPE) and Precious Metals (BPR) each business day in the following manner. Bloomberg calculates and publishes a daily settlement price for each Index based on the settlements of the index's component commodity futures contracts. CME Group staff publishes this price as the daily settlement for each Bloomberg Commodity Subindex futures contract. If Bloomberg does not provide an index price by 16:30 Central Time (CT), then the Subindex will settle to the last index price provided by Bloomberg.

If you have any questions, please call the CME Global Command Center at +1 800 438 8616, in Europe at +44 800 898 013 or in Asia at +65 6532 5010.

Note: In the event the aforementioned calculations cannot be made or if CME Group staff, in its sole discretion, determines that anomalous activity produces results that are not representative of the fair value of the contract, staff may determine an alternative settlement price.
