SUBJECT: CME Globex Equity Index Trading Hours and Daily Price Limit Changes for Futures and Options

Effective Sunday, November 18 (trade date Monday, November 19), new trading hours will be implemented for all CME Group Equity Index futures and options, in addition to a new process for applying daily price limits to US-based Equity futures.

Normal “non-holiday” Trading Hours: Trade dates will begin at 17:00 CT/18:00 ET (vs. the current 15:30 CT/16:30 ET on Monday-Thursday) and continue through the next day until 16:15 CT/17:15 ET, with a 15 minute market pause (Pre-open) from 15:15 CT to 15:30 CT /16:15 to 16:30 ET. Note: Big equity contracts (SP, ND, MD & DD) will continue to halt at 08:15 CT/09:15 ET, but will re-open with their E-minis at 15:30 CT/16:30 ET and close at 16:15 CT/17:15 ET for the same trade date as the E-minis.

Daily Price Limits: Existing 5, 10, 20, and 30 percent daily price limits will continue to be in effect, but they will no longer be applied to the daily settlement, but rather the 15:00 CT/16:00 ET futures fixing price. Additionally, 5 percent up and down price limits will be applied at 15:00 CT/16:00 ET and will be in effect until 08:30 CT/09:30 ET the following day.

Notes: These changes are subject to all relevant regulatory reviews. Additionally, the Settlement time and process for all CME Group equity index futures and options will remain the same.
